

CCTV Wildlife Monitoring

Course tutor—Susan Young, author of ‘CCTV for Wildlife Monitoring’

A unique, cutting edge, practically based one-day course providing hands-on experience of the latest techniques to monitor protected species.

Including setups for:

- Monitoring bat emergence without being present
- Badger remote viewing
- Catching otters on film

Course Content

Basic theory of CCTV and equipment

Camera, recorders, monitors, cables, power sources

Indoor practical session setting up equipment

Underwater cameras suitable for:

- Great crested newts
- Otters

Day/night cameras suitable for:

- Bat emergence and monitoring
- Badgers
- Otters
- Birds
- Dormice

Portable CCTV

- Battery choice and use

Sample videos demonstrated

- Otters
- Badgers
- Bats
- Birds

Basic video management

- Recording parameters
- Viewing software
- Managing video numbers

Practical video session

- Using video software
- Video analysis

CCTV Wildlife Monitoring Course

A unique, cutting edge, practically based one-day course providing hands-on experience of the latest techniques to monitor protected species.

Event	CCTV Wildlife Monitoring Course
Date and times	Thursday 6th April 2017 09:30 – 16:30
Location	Unit 9C, Mill Park Industrial Estate, Woodbury Salterton, Exeter, Devon, EX5 1EL
Course tutor	Susan Young
Cost	£150 (plus VAT if VAT registered; if not, we will include VAT)
What to bring:	Laptop with pre-installed software which we will provide via Dropbox prior to the course Pen/paper 4GB USB memory stick Lunch (tea/coffee will be provided)
Travel information	TBC on booking
Booking	To book a place, please email office@richardgreenecology.co.uk or call 01395 239234. Payment by cheque or BACS. An invoice will be provided with payment details. Places cannot be held until payment is made in full. Please note that the course may be cancelled if there is insufficient interest. In this case, a full refund will be made.