

Introduction to Schedule 9 Invasive Plant Species

Introduction

This course introduces invasive plant species found in the UK and their legal status. This course includes identification of commonly occurring invasive plants, information on early recognition, and their control.

Course content

- What is an invasive species?
- Legislation relating to invasive plant species
- Spread of invasive plants and environmental impacts
- Identification of commonly occurring invasive plants, such as:
Japanese knotweed, Himalayan balsam, giant hogweed, parrot's feather, Australian swamp stonecrop, rhododendron, cotoneaster
- Control/treatment methods
- Health and safety and biosecurity

A course certificate will be issued.

Where?

The course is held at our main office, just outside of Exeter.

How to book

Please email office@richardgreenecology.co.uk for a booking form.